

YOU'RE INVITED TO A FIELD TOUR!

Sponsored by the Jefferson Institute & the University of Missouri

Alternative Crop Field Day

Thursday, August 21, 2003

Bradford Research & Extension Farm

Columbia, MO

8:45 a.m. registration & refreshments

9:00 a.m. program begins with a walking tour of alternative crop demonstration planting followed by a wagon tour

11:00 a.m. tour will conclude

20 alternative crops will be featured including:

Sesame
Sunflowers
Amaranth
Pearl Millet
Nyjerseed
Flax
Dry Edible Beans
Edamame Soybeans
Foxtail Millet
Cowpeas
Sunhemp
Kenaf
Buckwheat
Japanese Millet
Pigeon Peas

Tours will include:

- Grain and Oilseed Crop Options for Missouri Farmers, Rob Myers
- Cropping System Study, Shawn Conley
- Sunflower Opportunities and Economics, Alan Weber
- Sunflower Planting Dates Study, Shawn Conley

*Event will occur rain or shine (indoor presentations will be held if it rains). See the enclosed map for directions.
Need more information? Please contact the Jefferson Institute at 573.449.3518.*