

You're Invited to a Farmer Meeting

Income Opportunities With Sunflowers

Co-Sponsored by University of Missouri Extension and the Thomas Jefferson Agricultural Institute

After a complimentary lunch, Dr. Rob Myers, an agronomist from the Jefferson Institute, will give a presentation on the latest production and marketing information with sunflowers, which have recently had a price boost. A buyer from Buchheit Agri in Perryville will be present to discuss contracting opportunities with birdseed sunflowers.

The meeting will be held at:

Woodards Buffet Restaurant, Jackson, MO
Wednesday, February 23, 2005
12:00 - 1:30 pm

Directions: Take Exit #99 from Interstate 55.
The restaurant is about 3 miles northwest of the exit,
on the right (east) side the road.

*To reserve a spot at this free meeting, please call the Cape Girardeau County Extension Office at 573-243-3581
by Tuesday, Feb. 22nd.*